

Attention Parents: Your teen can get an edge by taking Hebrew in Public High School!

- Hebrew is offered at more than 140 prestigious colleges and universities nationwide.
- There is a demand for Hebrew speakers in high-tech, international relations, marketing and the military.
- Israel has the second-highest number of companies listed on NASDAQ (US has the highest).
- Your child will develop a strong connection with Israel while being a part of a close-knit community.

Here's what students around Chicagoland are saying about taking Hebrew in public school:

"By taking Hebrew at my public high school I have the opportunity to explore a language, culture and community that is as rich in history as it is in modernity."

-Eliana S., New Trier

"Having Hebrew language offered in high school is really beneficial and valuable to students. Not only does it make for a more well-rounded student, but it also gives insight into the culture and life of another country. Since Hebrew is not the most well-known language around, it really can give a student something unique to study."

-Ilana S., Stevenson

"I am taking Hebrew because I would like to know about the language that has been spoken for so long and means so much to so many people."

- David F., Niles North
